Hi Deep,

Thank you for the notes. Since our two teams are working on the same project, please go ahead to use these figures in your dissertation. In addition, to avoid any further publication conflicts, if it is possible, please also note that these figures were achieved by our lab testing team of this project to study on properties of the icy lunar regolith (Jamal Rostami, Christopher Dryer, Wenpeng Liu, etc.).

Thank you,

Frank

Hi Frank,

Hope all is well!

I am finishing up my dissertation right now and I want to use three figures from the journal paper that you had sent me (Fig 5, 13 and 14) in my dissertation. Would it be possible for you to give me permission to use this figure in my dissertation?
