MINES@150 Highlights

Sisters (and Orediggers) unite!

Honoring our military history

Nancy Ramirez-Durrani '80 said she was "bubbling over with happiness and pride" at Homecoming. She reunited with her sisters from the first sorority established at Mines and took advantage of many events. Nancy is not the only Oredigger in her family!

Meet Nancy

When Mines was founded in 1874, the Military Department was among the first three on campus. Mines students and graduates have honored the United States through valor and leadership ever since, including through the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers.
